

Name: _____

Date: _____

1.01 Terminology

Across

3. Care that helps restore a person to the highest possible level of functioning, independence control, and adaption to a disability

5. Pertains to treating, fixing, or correcting a medical or surgical medical or surgical problem

7. An illness form which the resident is not expected to recover and will die.

8. Pertaining to the science of treatment that includes drugs, diet, exercise and other non-surgical means.

12. Pertaining to the Identification of of a medical condition or disease as a medical condition or disease as determined by a physician.

16. Given to people in facilities or homes who have less than 6 months to live; Comfort home

17. A sudden onset from which the resident is expected to recover.

18. Federal health insurance program for people 65+ or have renal failure

21. A type of home that is for developmental disabled adults

22. Inspector from the state who visits facilities to make sure they are meeting state and federal rules

23. Slow or gradual on set, for which there is no known cure, the illness can be controlled and complications prevented.

24. Type of home that serves 2-6 unrelated people

25. This person supervises nursing staff activities, are responsible for safe nursing care, and the RN's

Down

1. These people are responsible for provision of safe and adequate care at a responsible cost

2. Provide care in the home for people needing health services, but not hospitalization

4. This person supervises medical staff activities, staff include physicians, residents, and interns

6. Information entered onto the Healthcare Personnel Registry about an individual who is under investigation for an allegation that was made against them

9. Formerly called rest home or assisted living

10. Type of home that serves 7 or more unrelated persons

11. Type of housing that resembles an apartment

13. Pertains to the treatment of injury, deformity, and disease by manual and instrumental operations.

14. Any abuse or neglect on resident that is being investigated

15. Medical assistance program for those with low incomes, disabilities, as well as children

19. Identification of a medical condition determined by a physician

20. Sudden occurrence of a serious and urgent nature that demands immediate attention.