

1.02 key terms crossword puzzle

Across

2. The criminal jurisdiction of the trial courts depends on
4. Criminal cases are presented for a grand jury to determine if probable cause exist for the case
5. Item such as a coroner's report a weapon in a criminal case photographs in a civil case that help corroborate
6. The district court is the lowest level federal court with general jurisdiction

7. are each parties principal opportunity remind jurors about key evidence presented

8. The initial pleading by which a lawsuit is begun

9. The person or entity bringing or filing

10. The civil jurisdiction of the trial court divisions

11. The person or entity against which the lawsuit is brought

12. The arrest person is taken before a magistrate, bond amount in order for the charged to be released

Down

1. The charged person is brought before a judge to determine probable cause to have the case heard by a grand jury

3. A person who has allegedly committed of a felony offense or a serious misdemeanor offense