

Name: _____

Date: _____

15 Words

Across

1. starts with the most important and ends with the least important point via versa

4. shows similarities and differences between two or more things

6. the main idea in an essay to be proven or explained

11. presents information in sequence or in which the order of the events happened

12. the repetition of a similar sound

13. a cause is why something happens while effect is what happens

14. the occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning or adjacent to or closely connected words

15. numbers, tables, graphs, use to support a claim

Down

2. concerning issue and something that was, can be, or should be done to remedy the issue

3. occurs when an actor turns to speak directly to the audience

5. a long speech in which the character speaks at length to himself/herself

7. directions included in the script that tells actors exactly what to do and how to do it

8. a description that appeals to the 5 senses

9. a speech in which a character speaks at length to another character

10. a character that has traits the opposite of the protagonist