

15 terms-Haley Morris

Across

5. Returns numbers of cells

6. A horizontal group of cells identified by numbers

11. A command which can be used to perform common math problems such as, addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division.

13. A group of characters-usually words-in rows of a spreadsheet

14. Postion of data in a cell

15. A identifier for a cell which is combined by the cells column letter and row number

Down

1. A selected cell in a worksheet that is ready for data

2. Adds all numbers in certain cell ranges

3. A chart that uses bars to illustrate values in a worksheet

4. It's collection of related worksheets

7. To arrange a list of numbers or words

8. A graphic representation and relationships for example, pie, line, column, and bar.

9. The smallest value in a set of values

10. The largest value in a set of values

12. Copy a cells content or format it into an adjacent cell