

Name: _____

Date: _____

1920's and 1930's Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. Langston Hughes worked for the Baltimore newspaper during this war.

4. This author wrote satires about the materialism of the times including Arrowsmith (1925) and Elmer Gantry (1927).

10. Katherine Porter almost died in October of 1918 from this sickness

12. T.S. Eliot became a citizen in this country in 1927

13. A series of radio broadcast made by FDR to the nation beginning in 1933.

15. Fashionable young women intent on enjoying themselves and flouting conventional standards of behavior.

16. Pablo Picasso, Hemingway, and Fitzgerald all hung around out in this female author's apartment.

18. Made the first solo transatlantic airplane flight in 1927 in the Spirit of St. Louis.

19. This author wrote Mules and Men (1935) and Their Eyes Were Watching God (1937).

20. During this event, share prices on the New York Stock Exchange completely collapsed, becoming a pivotal factor in the emergence of the Great Depression.

Down

1. This author participated in the Running of the Bulls after Gertrude Stein recommended it to him.

2. This man was the Democratic candidate in 1928 but lost to Herbert Hoover.

5. An intellectual, social, and artistic movement that took place in Harlem, New York.

6. This author went to Princeton University but left to join the army in 1917.

7. Shantytowns were often named after this president during the Great Depression

8. This author went to NYU, received a Master's degree from Harvard, and was apart of the Harlem Renaissance.

9. An illicit liquor store or nightclub during prohibition

11. Became president in 1923 after Warren Harding's death. Known as Silent Cal.

14. Nationwide constitutional ban on the production, importation, transportation, and sale of alcoholic beverages (1920-1933).

17. William Faulkner won this prize in Literature in 1949.