

1960s

Across

2. a strong feeling that something is about to happen

3. free (someone) from a criminal charge.

5. in a careful or cautious manner

9. A disturbed state of mind resulting from illness

11. give a slight involuntary grimace or shrinking movement of the body out of or in anticipation of pain or distress

12. feeling or appearing casually calm and relaxed; not displaying anxiety, interest, or enthusiasm

13. the feeling that a person or a thing is beneath consideration, worthless, or deserving of hate

14. incapable of being fully understood.

Down

1. unwilling or unable to believe something

4. not saying what is meant clearly and directly.

6. bad-tempered and sulky; gloomy

7. clothed

8. give a surprise or shock to (someone) in order to make them act or change

10. not saying what is meant clearly and directly.

Word Bank

Unfathomable

Premonition

Sullenly

Contemptuously

Clad

Acquitted

Jolt

Nonchalantly

Roundabout

Incredulous

Winced

Delirious

Gingerly

Flinching