

1980's Last Names

Across

2. Meridian wide receiver was named All-State in 1987 and 1988.
3. Lynden Christian quarterback, future LC coach.
9. Lynden star linebackers. Dave, Jim, Brian and Mike.
11. Graduated in 1984 as Lynden Christian's career leading rusher.
17. Blaine star tight end and defensive end missed his senior season due to a car accident.
18. 1982 Trojans had the backfield of Martinson and...
19. Star linebacker at Nooksack Valley, now the head coach.
20. Mount Baker quarterback Jeff Curtis connected with this receiver for 13 touchdowns in 1986.
23. Ferndale running back racked up nearly 300 yards rushing against Mount Vernon in 1988.
26. Three brothers played at Blaine, but this quarterback played for Nooksack Valley
28. The 70's saw Mike and Pat, and the 80's had John and Scott.

29. Blaine star linebacker was named League's defensive player of the year in 1989, and was All-State

30. Future Husky was named Washington State's lineman of the year in 1982.

31. Lynden's 6-foot-5 tight end was named All-State in 1985.

Down

1. Ferndale running back, ran for five touchdowns in one game in college with Portland State University.
4. Mount Baker lineman was 6-foot-7 and 282 pounds.
5. Lynden speedster returned four punts for touchdowns in one season.
6. Coach led Lynden Christian to the 1986 state championship game.
7. Meridian defensive lineman that was named WCL Defensive Player of the Year, and was All-State in 1984.
8. Ferndale quarterback, current Philadelphia Eagles coach.

10. Sehome quarterback, defensive back and punter. Now a state senator.

12. Bellingham lineman was All-State, and then played for the 1991 National Champion Washington Huskies.

13. All-State kicker for Meridian in 1989

14. Mount Baker head coach

15. Bellingham wide receiver, and future Seattle Seahawk.

16. Eric, Darin and Tim. All were stars for Mount Baker.

21. Nooksack Valley two-time All-League 1st Team running back in the middle of the decade.

22. Mount Baker running backs, Rick and Leroy.

24. Coach Bob Ames called him the best center he's ever had.

25. Meridian star offensive lineman, turned running back senior year. Was also named All-State at defensive end twice.

27. Bellingham's two-time All-State quarterback.