

Name: _____

Date: _____

1984 Pt 1 ch V

Across

5. By 2050, this would be the only group who would still understand Oldspeak.

8. Fate of one who was too intelligent, saw too clearly, spoke too plainly.

11. The literature of the past will be changed, including this author's work.

12. Why the seven year old girl followed the strange man for 2 hours.

13. The "toys" children were given for listening through keyholes.

14. The edition of the Newspeak Dictionary the philologist was working on.

15. What the philologist asked Winston for.

16. The ministry who announced winning "the battle for production"

17. Posters the market-woman used to wrap sausages.

Down

1. The term for "wearing an improper expression on your face"

2. In Newspeak, the opposite of "good".

3. Wintson's neighbor who is owed money for Hate Week subscriptions.

4. The place where discredited Party leaders visited before they were purged.

6. As Newspeak narrows the range of thought, what will become impossible?

7. The philologist Winston had lunch with.

9. In Newspeak, the stronger version of "good".

10. A Newspeak term meaning "abuse" for an opponent and "praise" for a friend.