

200 point Financial Literacy Assignment

Across

3. A _____ register is a record of the gross income, deductions, and net income of your company's employees
6. this tax rate taken out of each of your paychecks is about 1.45%
7. the amount you get paid before deductions
8. The electric company may add a fuel _____ charge to your monthly electric bill to help cover increases in the cost of fuel needed to produce your electricity
9. to obtain agreement between your check register and the bank statement
12. _____ security has a tax rate of about 6.2%
13. the number of each item that your business has in stock
14. shares of ownership in a company

15. operating expenses , like paying your employees, paying the electric and water, rent of the building

19. an amount of money that you are paid for selling a product or service. It is based on a percent of what you sell.

22. the demand charge is based on the _____ load during the month. This is the greatest number of kilowatts that your business uses at one time during the month

23. amount of money that you spend for your business. Starts with an "e"

Down

1. a decrease in the value of an item because of its age or condition
2. when you give a customer a discount
4. to fill job openings in your business, you may _____ new employees. Starts with a "r"

5. insurance that pays benefits to individuals who must miss work due to an illness or injury

10. the amount of money paid for the use of money. The bank pays you this when you have a savings account

11. when you work more than your regular hours

16. to distribute or share certain expenses among a business's departments. It starts with the letter "a"

17. the difference between the selling price and the cost. It starts with "m"

18. _____ value is the approximate value of an item after you have owned it for a period of time

20. a fixed amount of money that you earn on a regular basis

21. the amount you get paid after deductions