

2.01 Circulatory Medical Terminology

Across

2. the practice of drawing blood from a patient's vein and taking the blood specimens to the laboratory to prepare for testing
 7. a graphic record of the electrical activity of a muscle
 8. the physiological process through which new blood vessels form from pre-existing vessels
 9. a reduction in the number of blood cells
 10. a red blood cell

12. an abnormally rapid heart rate

13. a medical condition in which the ability of the blood to clot is severely reduced, causing the sufferer to bleed severely from even a slight injury

14. a bone cell

15. the thickening and hardening of the walls of the arteries, occurring typically in old age

Down

1. the measurement of electrical activity in the heart

3. a reduction in the number of white cells in the blood

4. local coagulation or clotting of the blood in a part of the circulatory system

5. bleeding from the uterus not associated with menstruation

6. an inherited disorder that causes hearing loss due to the ear's inability to amplify sound

11. abnormal enlargement of the heart