

2.01 KEY TERMS

Across

2. a comparrison between two things that are similar in some way,often used to help explain something

6. able to persuade somebody to belive that something is true or to act

8. an offical document that gives proof and details of something

10. education after high school

11. a school program that allows students to receive academic credit for caerer work in the students field of interest done outside the school

13. the action or capability of understanding something

15. involves students being enrolled in two seperate,academically related institutions

16. highly institutionalized , bureaucratic , curriculum driven, and formally recognized with grades

17. an offical document showing the educational work of student in a school or college

18. organized learning outside of the formal education system ; tend to be short term, volantly , and have few if any preequisites

19. to read the text an dmark corrections to be made

20. fall outside the realm of the normal curriculum of school or university education, preformed by students.

Down

1. clear enough to read

3. concerning or involving relationships between people

4. the practice of paying close attention to a speaker and asking questions to ensure full comprehension

5. a type of work expreience for entry-level-job-seeker

7. a mutal relationship or connection between two or more things

9. using as few words as possible to give the neccesary information

12. one bound by legal aggrement to work for another for a specific amount of time in return for instruction in a trade,art, or bussiness

14. international baccalaureate, offering internationally recognized courses