

Name: _____

Date: _____

2.03 Lymphatic Medical Terminology

Across

- 1. cancer caused by an uncontrollable growth of abnormal cells
- 8. a nervous disorder resembling angina
- 10. an instrument used to enhance the view of very small objects
- 11. an irregularly shaped region within a cell of a prokaryote
- 12. affected with poison

- 13. cancer treatment that involves one or more anti-cancer drugs
  - 14. the ability to break down tissues
  - 15. situated or occurring within the bronchial tubes
- Down
- 2. inflammation of the throat (specifically the pharynx and larynx)
  - 3. a specialist that promotes clean conditions for the preservation of health
  - 4. process in which red blood cells rupture/burst
  - 5. infected with bacteria
  - 6. on the opposite side of the body from which a particular structure or condition occurs
  - 7. study of medicine that deals with disease control so that it doesn't spread among the people
  - 9. inflammation of a gland