

Name: _____

209

Across

1. state is the most important factor when styling the hair?
4. what are the chains called that allow us to change the shape or the hair
5. State if the bonds found in the polypeptide chains are temporary or permanent?
7. what is in the air that can cause the bonds to break and put the hair back to its natural state ?
9. describe the hair growth pattern that will affect a fringe style

10. what makes the hair go back to its natural state?

11. what is the name given when the hair is in its new shape?

Down

2. name the bonds that are attached to the chains
3. name the inner layer of the hair shaft
6. what is the name of the hair before it has been styled?
8. what is the outer layer of the hair shaft called?