

Name: _____

Date: _____

21-31

Across

4. the view that low-income countries remain poor because high-income countries continue to exploit, dominate, and manipulate them

8. Mobility that occurs because of changes in the distribution of occupational opportunities

9. the integration of a social or ethnic minority into a society

11. widely held preconceptions of a group and its individual members

12. Unequal treatment of individuals based on their minority membership

Down

1. a category of people who are alleged to share certain biologically inherited physical characteristics that are considered socially important within a society

2. subjugation based on common, everyday social practices

3. subjugation based on the law

5. ideas that attempt to connect characteristics with innate racial superiority or inferiority

6. a group of people who are socially identified by their unique characteristics related to culture or nationality

7. type of stratification structure in which there is no social mobility because social status is inherited and cannot subsequently be changed

10. a people who possess some distinctive physical or cultural characteristics, are dominated by the majority, and are denied equal treatment