2.1 Interpret Scatterplots

Across

5. paired numbers that are related

8. a single set of numbers

9. when a trend shows an association between two variables

10. a general pattern

11. if the value of one variable decreases when the value of the other variable increases

Down

1. when one variable causes a change in the other variable

2. the variable which causes the change in the other variable

3. if the value of one variable increases when the value of the other variable increases

4. the affected variable

6. a graph that shows bivariate data using points

7. any set of numbers