

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

3rd Quarter Vocab Project

Across

2. The right of senators and representatives to send job-related mail without paying privilege

4. The political group in a legislative body with the most voting members

14. Power that the U.S. Congress has that is specifically listed in the constitution

15. Years of service, which is used as a consideration for assigning committee members

16. Any of various legislative or governing bodies, in particular

18. Being a voting member of a community or organization and having the power to appoint or elect

19. Gov't project grant that primarily benefits a Congress person's home district or state

20. Manipulate the boundaries of [an electoral constituency] so as to favor one party or class

21. Representative of an interest group who contacts lawmakers or other gov't officials directly to influence their policy making

23. The lower house of the United States Congress

24. The work that a lawmaker does to help constituents with a problem

25. Is a court order to a person or agency holding someone in custody to deliver the imprisoned individual to the court issuing the order and to show a valid reason for that person's detention

Down

1. Another name for expressed power

3. A tactic for defeating a bill in the senate

5. To accuse gov't officials of misconduct in office

6. An organization of people with some common interests

7. A legislative act finding a person guilty of treason or felony without a trial

8. Power that Congress has that is not stated explicitly in the constitution

9. A law that allows a person to be punished for an action that was not against the law when it was committed

10. Clause in article 1, section 8 of the constitution that gives Congress the right to make all laws "necessary and proper" to carry out its expressed powers

11. The political party to which fewer than half the members belong

12. Duty Congress holds besides lawmaking

13. A resolution that is passed by both houses of Congress

17. A completely unrelated amendment added to a bill

22. An official count or survey of a population, typically recording various details of individuals