

3rd Six Weeks Sat Vocabulary

Across

- 1. behaving calmly and not seeming interested in or worried about anything
- 4. someone who is a very skillful performer, especially in music
- 9. friendly and easy to like
- 11. someone who is blamed for something bad that happens, even though it's not their fault
- 13. not bright, loud, harsh, or strong in flavor; not strict
- 16. a strong feeling of being sorry that you did something bad or wrong
- 18. crazy or unusual in an amusing way

- 19. a remark or idea that is boring, not new, and insincere
- 20. describes someone who always changes their mind about people or things they like, so you can't depend in them

Down

- 2. not involved in a particular situation, and therefore able to give a fair opinion or advice
- 3. belonging to the present time
- 5. a piece of writing, music, or an action that copies
- 6. a break or interruption in an activity
- 7. something that is very large

- 8. a strong dislike of something or someone
- 10. someone who is no longer interested in or excited by something, usually because they have experienced too much of it
- 12. a particular type of art, writing, books, music, etc. which has certain features
- 14. the act or crime of stealing
- 15. the most successful point in the development of something; the highest point
- 17. done or given without payment