

Name: _____

Date: _____

4.01 Urinary Medical Terminology - Charlotte Routhier

Across

1. Softening of the kidneys.
2. Inflammation of glomerulus in your kidney.
5. Kidney stones.
8. A prolapse of the wall between the rectum and vagina.
10. Crushing of a kidney stone through shock waves.
13. Excessive urination.

14. When your kidneys stop working and you get put on dialysis or a waiting list for a transplant.
15. Urine passes through before continuing to the renal pelvis into the ureter.

Down

3. Excessive fluid in the kidney from back up of urine.
4. Kidney dialysis at a facility.

6. Functional unit of the kidney.

7. Removal of kidney stone within the renal pelvis.

9. Sugar (glucose) in urine.

11. Reduced production of urine.

12. A new, abnormal growth of tissue in the body.