

4.02D Life Cycle Nutrition Key Terms

Across

1. While skateboarding, the boys heart was beating for 20 minutes.

5. The baby had to go to this person to make sure they are healthy.

9. Baby that has not been born yet.

12. Eating disorder, where one has repeated episodes of uncontrolled eating of foods.

13. What is it when our body's carry enough energy to stay alive and process energy?

14. While the girl was running track, she started breathing hard and her heart started beating fast.

15. The parent was concerned with her daughter refusing to eat.

16. When people in the same age group influences you to do something you normally would not want to do.

17. Body mass index of 18.5 to 24.9 in an adult.

18. Canned food, frozen food, boxed food, packaged, etc

19. When the body's immune system has a reaction when exposed to proteins in food

Down

2. A condition where the body is 10% under your normal weight or a BMI (Body Mass Index) of less than 18.5

3. Mental state caused by a reaction to a situation

4. A diet that is popular for only a short amount of time

6. Unit used to measure the amount of energy value in foods.

7. Your body's ability to meet physical demands.

8. Loss of body fluids, causes you to sweat, have dry mouth, colored urine, constipation, etc.

10. Most people who eat fast food every meal for everyday has this condition.

11. The weightlifter had an intense burst of energy while lifting weights.