

416 Review

Across

3. For natural nail preparation, select an abrasive file with

5. Wrap resins are called

8. Which term describes wavelengths of electromagnetic radiation that occur beyond the visible spectrum of light?

9. Which gel is used to enhance thickness of the overlay while providing a smoother surface?

10. Which substances are used to increase adhesion to the natural nail plate, similar to a monomer liquid and polymer powder primer?

11. If a client repeatedly returns to the salon with broken enhancements, you should try a gel that uses

14. The difference between light cured gels is the type of photoinitiator used in the formula and the measure of _____ to which that photoinitiator responds to.

15. Soft UV gels are also known as

16. What type of UV or LED gel is used when sculpting light cured gel using forms?

Down

1. Which substances include any thick-viscosity resin that allows the cosmetologist to build an arch and curve into the fingernail?

2. What type of nail enhancement product hardens when exposed to UV light, and is also known as a UV and LED gel?

4. Traditionally, light cured gels relied on urethane acrylate; newer gel systems use

6. _____ acrylate and _____ methacrylate are the main ingredients used alone or in combination with urethane acrylates to create light cured gel nail enhancements.

7. After the filing procedure, remove dust and filings with a clean and disinfected

12. Caution should be used when filing gel nails because they are

13. the measurement of the thickness or thinness of a liquid and affects how the fluid flows.