

Name: _____

Date: _____

4th period ID Theft

Across

2. A company that gathers and stores various types of info about you and your financial accounts and history.
4. Software that is intended to damage computers and systems.
7. An incident that results in unauthorized access of data.
8. A method used by identity thieves to capture info from a card holder
10. Scams that occur when someone releases online personal info.

Down

1. The fraudulent use of another person's info for financial gain.
3. The fraudulent practice of directing internet users to a bogus website that mimics the appearance of a legit one.
5. Scams directed at high profile businesses.
6. A fraudulent activity or deceptive act.
9. The fraudulent practice of sending emails purporting to be from reputable companies in order to get people to reveal personal info.