

Name: _____

Date: _____

5th grade Practical Treasures: Metals

Across

- 3. bright yellow metal that has been prized for centuries because of its scarcity
- 5. mixture of copper and zinc
- 6. mixture of copper and tin
- 8. lightweight, silvery-colored metal that is formed into almost any shape, rustproof; non-magnetic; most abundant
- 11. metal that expands and contracts when heated or cooled (quicksilver)

Down

- 1. can be hammered into thin sheets
- 2. best low-cost electrical conductor
- 4. silvery, white, radioactive metal
- 7. can be drawn into wires
- 9. our most useful metal; magnetic
- 10. best conductor of electricity, but too expensive for most electrical uses; used in coins, jewelry, tableware