

6th Grade Chapter 6 Test Review

Across

1. A literal interpretation fails to recognize the splendor of God's intelligence and power behind what process?

3. In Genesis 1:27 it reads partially, "in the divine image he created him; male and female he created them." What term represents male and female in this statement?

8. When considering the evolution of life; a person who is strictly theological or strictly scientific is considered to be what?

10. Unlike plants, animals and inanimate objects, human beings can choose to know and love God how?

11. When our body dies, where does our soul go?

12. Human beings are not simply the result of what?

13. Our bodies are mortal and our souls are what?

Down

2. Evolution is known as scientific what?

4. The human body is composed of material parts and the soul is composed of what parts?

5. The Church teaches that the creation language of Genesis is richly what?

6. Each person's soul is created directly by whom?

7. Our soul enters our body at the time of what?

9. When we die, most of us will eventually become what?