

Name: _____ Date: _____

6th Grade Collection 2 Vocab

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| 1. An excessive amount of something, such as food or drink | A. Treacherous |
| 2. To tell someone what you think is wrong with them | B. Evolve |
| 3. To be good-natured and friendly | C. Inconsistency |
| 4. To hit or strike with a hard blow | D. Embrace |
| 5. To be gloomy, miserable, and not interested in anything | E. Phenomenon |
| 6. Quality or feeling is one that is unhealthy or unwholesome, like an illness or disease | F. Morbid |
| 7. Desire to harm others or to see someone suffer | G. Plummet |
| 8. A person that is untrustworthy and likely to betray others | H. Complexity |
| 9. Having success, particularly having enough money | I. Aptitude |
| 10. A hug or encirclement, showing acceptance | J. Attribute |
| 11. When animals and plants gradually change and develop into different forms | K. Amiable |
| 12. When you believe that a person causes something or has something | L. Eavesdrop |
| 13. An unusual or remarkable fact or event | M. Mope |
| 14. When something does not always behave or respond the same way every time | N. Stake |
| 15. The state of having many different parts that are connected in a tangled or layered way | O. Foil |
| 16. An ability to easily and quickly learn how to do it | P. Predator |
| 17. To listen secretly to others private conversations | Q. Intercept |
| 18. When you stop a person from being successful at something | R. Criticize |
| 19. An animal that survives by eating other animals | S. Surfeit |
| 20. Something that can be gained or lost in a situation, such as money, food, or life | T. Malice |
| 21. To stop or interrupt something | U. Prosperity |
| 22. When you fall straight down, suddenly and steeply | V. Wallop |