

9/18 Chapter 17 Sections 1 and 2-

Across

2. The German Artist who specialized in painting portraits that are almost photographic in detail.
 8. The famous artist who sculpted David from the Bible.
 9. An intellectual movement that focused on human potential and achievements.
 11. The Flemish painter who was very skillful in portraying large numbers of people.
 13. The Christian humanist who wrote the book "Utopia"
 14. The movement that started in Italy that caused an explosion of creativity, art, writing, that lasted from about 1300 to 1600.

16. More worldly than being as spiritual and religious.

17. The craftsmen from Germany who developed a printing press that incorporated a number of technologies in a way.

19. An artist technique of showing 3 dimensions on a flat surface.

Down

1. The artist who was one of the first to use a more realistic style of depicting the human body.

3. The Christian humanist wrote "The Praise of Folly"

4. The woman Christian humanist who wrote, "The Book of The City of Ladies"

5. The famous artist who drew the Mona Lisa.

6. The most famous writer of the Elizabethan Age and the greatest playwright of all time.

7. The famous artist who drew the Madonna and child.

10. A native language to a certain place or region.

12. The Flemish painter who used recently developed oil-based paints in his work.

15. The German artist who produced woodcuts and engravings who most of the time portrayed religious subjects.

18. An imagined place where everything is perfect.

Word Bank

Christine de Pizan

Humanism

Secular

Has Holbein the Younger

Vernacular

Raphael Sanzio

Utopia

Jan van Eyck

Desiderius Erasmus

Leonardo da Vinci

Albrecht Durer

William Shakespeare

Johann Gutenberg

Renaissance

Michelangelo Buonarroti

Thomas More

Perspective

Pieter Bruegel the Elder

Donatello