

Name: _____

ALS Crossword

Across

3. To check if the ETT is in the correct position, the Ezi cap ETCO2 detector changes from _____ to gold.
7. What is the name of the drug used in a cardiac arrest for a shockable rhythm after the 3rd shock? (Hint: It's an antiarrhythmic)
10. In COACHED the letter D stands for _____/Dump.
11. The drugs that can be administered down the ETT are abbreviated to ALAN. What does N stand for?
13. What maneuver applied externally can be used to assist the anesthetist to visualize the vocal cords?
14. What rhythm is this? figure 4

15. Reversible causes of cardiac arrest are 4 H's and 4 T's. The 4 H's are Hypovolaemia, Hypo/Hyperkaleamia, Hypo/Hyperthermia & H_____.
16. In a witnessed, monitored VT arrest, whilst waiting for the defib to arrive the patient can be given a precordial _____.
19. What is the tube that is placed in the airway to secure ventilation called? (use abbreviation)

Down

1. In COACHED what does the letter E stand for?
2. . In Synchronized Cardio version the shock is delivered on the _____ complex.
4. What drug can be used instead of Amiodarone in an arrest?

5. Reversible causes of cardiac arrest are 4 H's and 4 T's. The 4 T's are:- Tamponade, Tension pneumothorax, Thrombo-embolism & T_____.
6. What is the name of a drug that can be used to treat SVT? (Hint: It has a very short half life.)
8. What drug is used to treat Asystole or PEA?
9. What drug speeds the heart rate up and is given in 600mcg increments up to 3mg?
12. What rhythm is this? Figure 1
17. What rhythm is this? NB Patient has no BP, no pulse and is not breathing. Figure 3
18. What rhythm is this? Figure 2