

APHG Unit 2

Across

2. the scientific study of population characteristics
4. Term used to designate large coalescing supercities that are forming in diverse parts of the world.
6. the number of years it takes for an area's population to double (2 words)
7. Concerned with limiting population growth.
8. medical technology from Europe and North America that was used to eliminate many diseases in the developing world (2 words)
13. The ratio of the number of farmers to the total amount of land suitable for agriculture. (2 words)

14. The branch of medical science that is concerned with identifying, fighting, and preventing disease.

15. a situation in which the number of people in an area exceeds the capacity of the environment to support life at a decent standard of living

16. Disease that occurs over a wide geographic area and affects a very high proportion of the population.

17. Goods and services and their distribution within a population (3 words)

18. Description of locations on Earth's surface where populations live (2 words)

Down

1. the development of farming (2 words)

3. A complete enumeration of a population

5. the level of development that can be maintained without depleting resources

9. methods or devices used to prevent pregnancy.

10. the portion of Earth's surface occupied by permanent human settlement

11. the ratio of men to women (2 words)

12. any process that eliminates a person's ability to produce children