

APLitCrosswordReview

Across

2. "My love is like a red red rose" is an example of this kind of comparison.
4. This former Poet Laureate wrote "Still, I Rise"
6. Her name means "ill-fated" and she certainly was
7. The Shakespearean form has 3 quatrains and an heroic couplet
10. . The biological mother of Troy's youngest child.
17. A brief quote introducing a literary work
18. What color are Jealousy's eyes?
24. Latin prefix for 5...
25. Poet of "To Prisoners"
26. In "The Garden" this word is used to explore the relationship between violence and sex...a kiss or a hit....
30. A person, place or thing
31. Troy's best friend
32. A poetic line of iambs with 8 syllables would be _____meter
33. Tempresses known to sing sailors to their deaths, but they won't sing to Prufrock
36. Where Adam & Eve ate the apple.
37. A story inside a story - like Frankenstein - is called a _____ narrative.
38. What did they steal from Sethe?
39. Robert Frost wrote a poem about this tree, exploring the loss of childhood innocence and accepting adult responsibilities
41. She told Troy that he was now "a womanless man."
42. In Metaphysical poetry, this kind of unexpected metaphor is called a _____

44. The universal truth or message of a literary work

48. Author of Beloved
 50. "Therefore I lie with her and she with me and in our lies we flattered be." is an example of this kind of word place of which Shakespeare was a master.
 51. This poetic form is a tribute to someone who has died and consists of 3 stanzas, one of lament, one of praise, and one of acceptance.
 52. Whitman's "O Captain! My Captain" is a tribute to _____
 53. A repeated pattern (symbol, allusion, metaphor) in a literary work
 54. She wrote Frankenstein at the age of 19.
- ## Down
1. The Belle of Amherst who wrote "Because I could not stop for Death...."
 3. "Love is a battlefield" is an example of this literary device
 5. The number of lines in a Shakespearean sonnet
 8. This poetic form is a love song to the morning
 9. A Long thin candle "We are _____ too and at our own cost die" according to Donne
 11. In Spanish, a plural form of the
 12. Prufrock's "overwhelming question" - "Do I _____?"
 13. The other way Frost suggests the world might end.
 14. I:sky street/retreat hotel/shell argument/intent it/visit are examples from the first stanza of "Prufrock"
 15. There are seven deadly ones - including jealousy
 16. Victor's wife

19. Not an allusion, but a type of optical trick.

20. His Holy Sonnets include "Death Be Not Proud"
21. Speaker of "I am not what I am."
22. This device is a pattern that is repeated across literary works, like an archetype
23. "I have seen the Eternal Footman hold my _____ and snicker. And in short, I was afraid."
27. She was accused, convicted and executed for killing Victor Frankenstein's brother William.
28. Toni Morrison, TS Eliot & Yeats all won this prestigious award for literature.
29. This poetic foot has 2 syllables, one stressed, one unstressed
34. In "Prufrock" the women "come and go." Who are they talking about?
35. There are 3 forms of this literary device: verbal, dramatic & situational
40. A type of Romantic literature that focuses on the dark and eerie, a kind of horror story. Frankenstein is one.
43. One of the two ways that Robert Frost says the world might end.
45. He boasted that "Death ain't nothing but a fastball on the outside corner."
46. In this trope, it is always the _____ oracle who can see the real truth.
47. Two poetic lines
49. Frost's line "From what I've tasted of _____ I hold with those who favor X."