

AP Gov

Across

5. powers of U.S. government which have not been explicitly granted by the Constitution

8. metaphor for the appropriation of government spending for localized projects

12. prolonged speech that obstructs progress in a legislative assembly

14. Executive Department of the Government of the United States of America power over the United States military is second only to that of the President

15. Cabinet-level section of the U.S. government that is dedicated to promoting economic growth, create jobs through sustainable development, favorable international trade terms

16. assistance provided by members of Congress to constituents who encounter a grievance with a federal agency

17. federal executive branch responsible for developing policies for effective use of the nation's resources, conservation, regulating oil pipelines, and encouraging research on new sources

18. process of drawing boundaries for electoral and political districts in the U.S.

19. federal agency within the legislative branch of the United States government that provides budget and economic information

20. government cabinet body responsible for standards in occupational safety, wages and number of hours worked, unemployment insurance benefits, re-employment services

21. current holder of a political office

22. secretary department, federal executive branch responsible for providing federal aid & financial aid to students, keeping national records

Down

1. the constitutional requirement that appointments by the president be made "by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate"

2. lower house of the United States Congress with 435 popularly elected officials,

3. manipulate the boundaries of (an electoral constituency) so as to favor one party or class.

4. success in the 1994 U.S. midterm elections, which resulted in a net gain of 54 seats in the House of Representatives

6. a person or group of persons elected or appointed to perform some service or function

7. A department of the federal executive branch responsible for the national highways and for railroad and airline safety

9. the powers of the federal government that are specifically described in the Constitution are sometimes called 'delegated' or 'expressed powers,'

10. refers to the review, monitoring, and supervision of federal agencies, programs, activities, and policy implementation

11. once a bill has gone through procedure it's passed it's turned into this

13. the smaller upper assembly in the US Congress, most US states, France, and other countries.