

Name: _____

Date: _____

AP Psych Review

Across

1. Behavior is controlled through unconscious mind and repressed memories
3. Behavior is a result of conditioning
7. Focuses on expanding the already existing scientific knowledge
9. Behavior is due to the way we interpret things
10. Anything an organism does that we can observe and record
12. phenomenon in which individuals tend to overestimate their own ability to have predicted an outcome
14. Functionalist who taught psychology at Harvard and taught Mary Calkins
15. Focuses on trying to solve real-life problems
19. A system of ideas intended to explain something

21. Behavior is based on traits that were passed on because they allowed our ancestors to survive.

22. The examination of one's own mental processes

23. A testable prediction

24. Student of Wundt and introduced structuralism

25. A recordable behavior used to represent another behavior.

Down

2. Behavior is the result of genes and neurotransmitters in the brain

4. Behaviors vary based on the culture you are in

5. Teacher of Plato, believed knowledge was innate

6. Behavior is a result of a combination of out genes, unconscious mind, and society

8. a person trained to give guidance on personal, social, or psychological problems

11. a medical practitioner specializing in the diagnosis and treatment of mental illness

13. Early school of psychology that used introspection to explore the elemental structure of the human mind

16. Idea that knowledge comes from experience via the senses, and science flourishes through observation and experiment.

17. Focused on how mental and behavioral processes function

18. Established first psychology lab in Leipzig Germany

20. Teacher of Aristotle, believed knowledge was innate