

Name: _____

Date: _____

AP Terms

Across

2. Beliefs for which our forebears fought is an example of
 3. a sentence that completes the main idea at the beginning of the sentence and then builds and adds on
 6. In your hands, my fellow citizens, more than mine, will rest the final success or failure of our course...is an example of
 7. A denial of the validity of an opposing argument
 10. inverted word order
 14. placement of two things closely together to emphasize similarities or differences
 15. sentence used to command or enjoin

17. Let us go forth to lead the land we love...is an example of

19. The spread of ideas and information to further cause
 20. character, reason, emotion

Down

1. sentence that exhorts, urges, entreats, implores or call to action
 4. But this peaceful revolution is an example of
 5. Use of two different words in a grammatically similar way that produces different, often incongruous meaning
 8. sentence whose main clause is withheld until the end
 9. repetition of words in reverse order

11. We shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe to assure the survival and the success of liberty

12. not as a call to bear arms, though arms we need--not as a call to battle, though embattled we are... is an example of

13. The circumstances, atmosphere, attitudes, and events surrounding a text

16. We shall...support any friend, oppose any foe is an example of

18. Greek for "hostile"/ an aggressive argument