

AP human Chap 6 Vocab

Across

2. The belief that the existence of God can't be proven empirically
 5. A religion in which a central authority exercises a high degree of control
 9. a religion that combines several traditions
 12. During the middle Ages, a neighborhood in a city set up by law to be inhabited only by Jews; now used to denote a section of a city in which members of any minority group live because of social, legal, or economic pressure.
 15. An individual who helps to diffuse a universalizing religion
 17. Belief in one God

18. Belief that objects, such as plants and stones, or natural events, like thunderstorms and earthquakes, have a discrete spirit and conscious life.
 19. A religion that attempts to appeal to all people, not just those living in a particular location.
 20. A set of religious beliefs concerning the origin of the universe.

Down

1. The class or distinct hereditary order into which a Hindu is assigned according to religious law.
 3. an astronomical event that happens twice a year resulting in shortest and longest days of the year
 4. A religion that does not have a central authority but shares ideas and cooperates informally

6. Literal interpretation and strict adherence to basic principles of a religion
 7. A division of a branch that unites a number of local congregations in a single legal and administrative body.
 8. A religion with a relatively concentrated spatial distribution whose principles are likely to be based on the physical characteristics of the particular location in which its adherents are concentrated.
 10. A local assembly of people brought together for common religious worship.
 11. belief that there is no god
 13. a large and fundamental division within a religion
 14. A journey to a place considered sacred for religious purposes
 16. belief in many gods