

AP stats definitions

Across

- 3. A sample type that only you choose some people from a group
- 4. The taking of a sample or samples
- 10. investigating the opinions or experience of a group of people
- 11. The practice or science of collecting and analyzing numerical data in large quantities
- 14. Having or involving two modes
- 15. Facts and Statistics collected together for analysis
- 17. A non-probability sampling method that people or selected because of there convenience

- 19. A type of sampling in which the people in the population are drawn by random draw
- 20. The difference between the highest and lowest number on a particular scale
- 21. The collection of data from every element in the population

Down

- 1. The middle number in your data
- 2. A type of sampling that you select all the people in a group
- 5. A numerical or other measurable factor forming one of a set that defines a system
- 6. Imitation of a situation or process

- 7. A type of probability with a fixed periodic interval
- 8. A scientific procedure undertaken to make a discovery, test a hypothesis, or demonstrate a known fact
- 9. Section, group, or type of people or animals living in an area
- 12. A fact or a piece of data from a study
- 13. A small part or quantity intended to show what the whole is like
- 16. The average of all the numbers in a set
- 18. The number in your data that is most often