

ATI Chapter 5

Across

5. Risk factors include: depression, substance use, having access to a firearm, and intimate partner issues
8. Can face barriers to adequate health care, can have increased risk for psychological distress and substance use disorders (abbreviation)
9. Long Term exposure is related to cancer, reproductive problems, Parkinson's disease, liver damage and behavioral issues
10. Includes failure to provide physical care, emotional care, education, health or dental care

Down

1. Failure to provide for the needs of a vulnerable person when adequate funds are available

2. Limited education and job opportunities, increased risk for poverty and homelessness, increased risk of school problems
3. Indicates a factor in the body, senses, or mind that affects the way a person interacts in the daily environment
4. Forced to leave place of origin due to disaster, war, or threatening environment
6. Irritability, tremors, nausea, vomiting, headaches, diaphoresis, anxiety, sleep disturbances, tachycardia, elevated BP
7. The primary indication of dependence