

Name: _____

Date: _____

A House Dividing

Across

2. act that basically just got rid of the 30 36 parallel

4. south carolina's "declaration of independence"

10. the supreme court chief justice in the red scott v sanford case

11. most successful abolitionist literature, by harriet beecher stowe.

13. the name of when a territory should decide the status of slavery in their own territory

16. political party that wanted popular sovereignty

17. political party that was initially an anti-slavery position. pro-business. free soil and abolitionists

18. president of the confederacy

19. 1852 democratic nominee. firmly beside compromise of 1850. won over the whigs' general scott in the North and South

20. David Wilmot attracted this amendment to the Bill

Down

1. escape route for fugitive slaves

3. it means to leave the union. the South threatened to do it if Lincoln was elected

5. honest. kansas-nabraska act brought him out of his political retirement

6. the main provision for the south in 1850 compromise. it became a powerful emotional tool in turning public opinion against slavery

7. the name of gold hunters in 1849

8. tried to make a compromise which basically brought back missouri compromise fort

9. those who favored keeping slavery where it already existed, but opposed its extension into the territories

12. the south thought they owned the fort but it was government property so the north did. Where first shots were fired but no one died from fighting.

14. the man that was the hero of the Mexican war

15. federal arsenal that was attacked.