

A Psychologist's View: Rogerian Argument

Across

1. The essay, Communication: Its Blocking and Its Facilitation, is to influence instructors who teach what?
9. The first step in the Rogerian argument is to _____ the problem.
10. The second step in the Rogerian argument is to _____ the other side.
11. Real communication occurs when we listen with what?

12. The third step, when analyzing a Rogerian argument, is to be what?

Down

2. What kind of psychologist was Carl Rogers?
3. In the Critical Thinking, Reading, and Writing book, what is the Rogerian argument checklist used for?
4. When analyzing a Rogerian argument, the fifth step is to state your own position and provide _____ as to why it's valid.

5. The Rogerian argument is based on what psychologist's work?

6. Good _____ is always therapeutic.

7. As a writer, we must reduce the what?

8. Unlike the traditional argument, Rogerian argument focuses on what?