

A Wrinkle in Time

Across

2. She normally never showed her stress but she was shaken up when Tesseract was mentioned.
 5. The planet on which aunt beast lives.
 6. They belong to Mrs. Who and Meg uses them to save her father.
 10. Puts Charles Wallace under a spell of sorts after he gave in.
 13. Has a romance with meg and his gift is communicating.
 14. The only people in the Murry family who seem to be "normal" or fit in
 15. Has been missing after he left for a secret government project.
 17. The Murry's dog.
 20. What Meg is ashamed of, yet it's her gift, and it is a recurring theme throughout the book.

21. The thing they were supposed to be fighting and that many artist, scientist, and religious leaders have fought.

22. The which that gave her spectacles to meg and quotes often.

23. The planet on which they found Mr. Murry.

24. Is made fun of because he is freakishly smart for a 6 year old.

26. Megs Principal who believes that her family is in denial about Mr. Murry's true whereabouts.

Down

1. The witch that visits during the stormy night.

3. Shows the children and Mrs. W's the black thing and Mrs. Murry

4. Is another representation of having flaws. He is punished for a mistake he made.

7. What Meg has that IT doesn't.

8. The which that doesn't materialize all of the way and had an odd echo like way of speaking because of it.

9. This is how the Mrs. W's and children traveled through space and time. Also known as the 5th dimension.

11. She was one of the beasts that healed Meg when she was frozen from the cold during Tessering.

12. Mrs. Whatsit stole her sheets.

16. The planet on which they first saw the black thing.

18. She is the main protagonist of the story who is the hero of the story.

19. A pulsing, body-less brain on a dais.

25. What Meg uses to overcome her fear.