

Name: _____ Date: _____

Abnormal Psychology Chp-4

1. Instructions for forming protein contained within each body's cell. A. Neuroleptics
2. The genetic makeup of an organism. B. Genes
3. One of two different variations of a gene. C. Token Economy
4. Inheritance which more than one gene participates in the process of determining a given characteristic. D. Personality Trait
5. The environment causes genes to turn "off" or "on." E. Transference
6. Term used to refer to antipsychotic medications. F. Polygenic
7. Pattern of perceiving, relating to, and thinking about the environment and others. G. Id
8. Trait theory proposing the basic dispositions in personality. H. Epigenesis
9. Immediate and total gratification of sensual needs and desires. I. Libido
10. Gratification of sexual and aggressive desires. J. Five Factor Model
11. Judgment, memory, perception and decision making, that enables adaption to realities of the external world. K. Genotype
12. Complex of the child's feelings toward the opposite sex parent in early childhood. L. Free Association
13. Carrying over of feelings that clients have from their parents to their therapist. M. Opedipus
14. The client speaks freely, and say whatever comes to mind. N. Allele
15. Client earns chips to exchange for tangible benefits. O. Ego