

Name: _____

Abnormal Quiz #4

Across

2. What averages the results of a large # of students to determine an overall level of effectiveness?
4. Which form of therapy is person centered and frankly, the easiest type of therapy that requires no skill?
5. Barrier when facilities are inaccessible due to distance or lack of transportation.
7. Efforts designed to prevent problems from arising
8. Truth or false? In family therapy, the perceived "problem child" is actually the unit of treatment.
13. When a person from a minority group fails to use mental health services due to a lack of trust.

14. What prevention effort is designed to address problems at an early stage.

15. Barrier when there is no grounds of communication.

Down

1. What does the APA suggest to be the empirically supported treatment for Enuresis?
3. What is it called when someone learns a desired behavior by observing others?
6. What is the first name of the person who developed the psychodynamic model?
9. Barrier when a person cannot financially afford to seek mental health.

10. after reading the chapter and pondering on your future thus far, which major type of helping professional career of you believe is the best fit for you and why? (refer to page 103). Answer below.

11. Barrier when a recent immigrant refuses to seek mental health due to little prior experience with mental health services or not prioritizing mental health.

12. Which type of therapy integrates therapeutic techniques to help individuals make changes in their behaviors and thoughts, beliefs, and attitudes?