

Access Control

Across

5. Something which validates or confirms the authenticity of something.
6. That which entitles one to confidence, credit, or authority.
8. A mechanical device used to control passage from one public area to another, typically consisting of several horizontal arms supported by and radially projecting from a central vertical post and allowing only the passage of individuals on foot.
10. Invented the home security system.

Down

1. A platform or an enclosure raised and lowered in a vertical shaft to transport people or freight.
2. The act of permitting
3. Lacking or not requiring a key
4. In cases where exit is not controlled, this device is used for free exit.
7. A movable structure used to close off an entrance, typically consisting of a panel that swings on hinges or that slides or rotates.
9. Any device that reads encoded information from a card or token and transmit the information to a control panel.