

Name: _____

Date: _____

Accounting Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. What is the term for the total set of accounting procedures that must be carried out each fiscal period?
6. To record an amount of the right hand side
7. a book which accounting entries are recorded
9. How easy an asset can be converted to cash
10. When the owner takes out money for personal use
12. Term for Sales tax in Canada

13. The difference between total assets and liabilities

14. Anything owned that has a dollar value

16. difference between total revenues and expenses

17. What account refers to when the company is owed money from customers?

Down

1. A charity is what kind of business organisation

3. A statement showing the current financial position of a company

4. A financial event that changes the values in certain accounts

5. list of all account balances to determine if sum of credits equals debits

8. Anyone who is owed money from the business

11. When expenses are more than revenue

15. Special form of business owned by shareholders