

Name: _____ Date: _____

Acute Glomerulonephritis

Across

5. what is increased as a sign improvement for acute glomerulonephritis
6. How is acute glomerulonephritis diagnosed?
8. the primary goal is to _____ kidney function
9. Acute Glomerulonephritis usually occurs as a result of
10. excess serum excreted in the urine (foamy-appearing urine)

Down

1. a slowly progressive disease characterized by inflammation of the glomeruli, causing irreversible damage to the nephrons
2. Decreased glomerulonephritis can lead to _____
3. Glomerulonephritis may occur as _____ declines
4. When educating parents regarding known antecedent infections in acute glomerulonephritis, which of the following should the nurse cover?
7. Pink or cola colored urine from RBC's being excreted in the urine