

Name: _____

Date: _____

Addiction Cross word

Across

6. mood-altering drugs that interferes with/or has a negative effect on a person's life.

8. when you have to use more and more of a substance to get an affect

10. When used with alcohol what substance increase euphoria?

12. What kind of drug can increase energy?

13. Psychological defense mechanism that protects people from seeing the harsh realities of their addiction

14. typically the opposite effect of effect produced by the drug

15. a situation in which the user replaces their primary drug with a secondary drug that is not cross-tolerant

Down

1. naturally occurring chemicals in the brain

2. when the primary drug and secondary drug have very similar effects

3. what describes when a person uses substances over a long period of time (not addiction)

4. What occurs when individuals use a primary drug and one or more secondary drug, frequently taking depressants and stimulants together

5. what describes a situation in which the body becomes extremely sensitive to a drug

7. What drug can promote a calming feeling?

9. What kind of drug can reduce anxiety?

11. Drugs can cause an _____ in neurotransmitter levels.