

Adolescent Sexuality

Across

10. Studies found that _____ accounted for almost 3/4 of the individual variation in age of sexual initiation.

11. What writes the "social scripts" that affect our perceptions and actions?

Down

1. The decline in what is a reflection of increasing condom use among sexually active high school students and decreasing sexual intercourse?

2. Teens overestimate their peers' _____, influencing their behavior and desire for sex.

3. The use of this depressant depresses the brain centers that control judgement, inhibition, and self awareness, causing those who partake to be less likely to use a condom when having sex.

4. This method of birth control offers little protection against skin-to-skin STIs.

5. Comprehensive sex-education programs put a great emphasis on?

6. Teens that _____ openly with their parents and their partner are more likely to use contraceptives.

7. Why do Americans have a lower rate of contraceptive use, and a higher rate of teen pregnancy and abortion than in European countries?

8. In Western Europe and Latin America, teen _____ rates are similar to one another, but are much lower among Arab and Asia countries.

9. Family and _____ values affect variation in age of sexual initiation.