

Name: _____

Date: _____

Advanced Government Elections and Campaigns

Across

2. A primary election in which voting is limited to already registered party members.
4. An election held to choose candidates for office in each party.
7. Voting for a candidate because you favor his or her ideas for handling issues
9. A committee set up by a corporation, labor union, or interest group that raises and spends campaign money from voluntary donations.
10. Drawing the boundaries of legislative districts so that the are unequal in population.

Down

1. Voting for a candidate because you like his or her past actions in office.
3. The tendency of candidates to win more votes in an election because of the person at the top of the ballot.
5. Funds obtained by political parties that are spent on party activities such as get-out-the vote drives, but not on behalf of a specific candidate.
6. A primary election in which voters may choose in which party to vote as the enter the polling place.
8. The person already holding an elective office.