

Afsara's Data Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. an individual set of data about a single respondent

4. experimental studies try to determine the _____ relationship between two variables.

5. Example: 25 employees chosen out of a hat from a company of 250

9. the group in an experiment that DOES NOT receive the specific treatment being measured

11. divides population into groups and randomly chooses a number of the groups and sample each member of the groups

12. facts and statistics collected together for reference or analysis

14. powerful and effective way to gain information about a group of people

16. Choosing at regular intervals from a population that is in a ordered list

17. Represent types of data which may be divided into groups

18. Shows how samples are different from each other

19. qualitative data that can be ranked

20. facts provided or learned about something or someone

21. the group in an experiment that receives the specific treatment being measured

2. all the individuals in a group that is being studied

6. a group of items or people selected from the population

7. opposite of ordinal data

8. data that has been collected directly by the researcher and isn't manipulated

10. a study where researcher observes and records behaviour

13. occurs when there's a prejudice in favor of or against an idea or response

15. show how samples are different from each other

Down

1. Data that is measurable and comes in the form of numbers