

Age of Reason Vocabulary

Across

5. the logic used to support a claim; can also be the facts and statistics used to help support the argument.
 6. the dictionary definition of the word.
 7. a movement that took place in the late 17th century and early 18th century (about 1750-1820) in North America when people "applied scientific reasoning to politics, science, and religion." The opposite of the Salem Witch Trials were people trusted the supernatural.
 11. an error in reasoning or a false assumption that might sound impressive but proves absolutely nothing because of error in reasoning.

12. techniques the speaker/writer uses as a means of persuasion.

16. the emotional or motivational appeals; vivid language, emotional language and numerous sensory details.

17. the person for whom the writer writes

18. repeating an idea using the same words

Down

1. reference to famous person, event, or idea

2. asking a question whose answer is self-evident

3. a statement of truth or opinion expressed in a concise and witty manner

4. the art of persuasive speaking or writing

8. repeating grammatical structures

9. the choice and arrangement of words

10. an attitude of a writer toward a subject or an audience. Tone is generally conveyed through the choice of words, or the viewpoint of a writer on a particular subject.

13. repeating an idea in a variety of ways

14. the set of associations implied by a word in addition to its literal meaning, the "feeling" a word gives you

15. the source's credibility or authority

Word Bank

Repetition

Aphorism

Rhetorical questions

Logos

Audience

Ethos

Age of Reason

Connotation

Rhetoric

Tone

Denotation

Rhetorical devices

Diction

Parallelism

Restatement

Pathos

Allusion

Logical fallacy