

Aging Physiology

Across

5. What is the fluid that builds up in glaucoma called?
 7. What measurement should be between 10 and 21 mm Hg?
 9. The most common cause of visual loss in people older than 65 years in the US is .
 10. What is the primary vision loss associated with age-related macular degeneration?
 11. What cranial nerve is damaged by increased intraocular pressure?

12. What medication is cholinergic?

13. Glaucoma results in the loss of _____ vision.

14. How long should you wait before instilling another eye drop in the same eye?

Down

1. How does vision appear through a cataract?

2. What are ocular medications that cause pupillary constriction?

3. What procedure is an example of extracapsular cataract surgery?

4. What tool do clients use to monitor for sudden onset or distortion of vision at home?

6. What classification of ophthalmic medications is the preferred initial topical treatment?

8. The medical term for double vision is .