

Name: _____ Date: _____

Airlines Terminology (set 3)

- |   |                               |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 1. A security-screened bag carried to an aircraft by a passenger  | A. Deplane                    |
| 2. When passengers leave the aircraft   | B. Federal Air Marshall (FAM) |
| 3. A flight that makes one or more intermediate stops between origin and destination, but the passenger does not change planes      | C. Carry On                   |
| 4. A federal agent responsible for the protection of the cockpit and safety of the aircraft   | D. Overhead Storage Bin       |
| 5. The status of an aircraft's performance during its scheduled flight  | E. Schedule Change            |
| 6. The total weight of an aircraft prior to departure   | F. Holding                    |
| 7. The amount of time an aircraft and crew spend on the ground between flights  | G. Ground Time                |
| 8. A flight that is waiting to take off or land   | H. Flight Info                |
| 9. Passengers or flights coming into an airport   | I. Nonstop Flight             |
| 10. A city where a flight stops between its originating and terminating point   | J. Intermediate Stop          |
| 11. Movable covered walkway that connects the airport terminal area directly to the aircraft for boarding and deplaining passengers | K. Canceled Flight            |
| 12. Law enforcement officer that assists in enforcing rules and regulations in and around the airport                               | L. Inbound                    |
| 13. Aircraft goes from point A to point B without stopping  | M. Gross Weight               |
| 14. An enclosed area directly above the passenger's seat that is used to store carry-on items                                       | N. Reservation                |
| 15. Another name for "Book"   | O. Routing                    |
| 16. A passenger's itinerary on a reservation  | P. Direct Flight              |
| 17. A flight which is terminated at the origin because of weather, mechanical problems or lack of passengers                        | Q. LEO                        |
| 18. Any modification to the operation of a flight, which may require passenger notification   | R. Jetway                     |