

Alcohol

Across

3. with increasing tolerance the body will develop
 5. A period of time that a drinker cannot recall
 6. If you exceed the BAC limit while driving you are charged with
 7. a chemical substance that is taken to cause change in the body is called a
 11. the last stage of alcoholism
 14. Carbon dioxide and alcohol are produced in what process
 15. Taking an excessive amount of a drug that leads to coma or death is called

16. The amount of alcohol in a person's blood

17. the drinker has absolutely no control over his or her drinking

18. a group of symptoms that occur when a defendant person stops taking a drug

19. drinkers who can no longer control their use of alcohol suffer from this disease

Down

1. The state in which a person's mental and physical abilities are impaired by alcohol is called

2. The consumption of excessive amounts of alcohol at one sitting

4. The after effects of drinking too much alcohol

8. repetitive use of alcohol effects the brain and the body has developed

9. a group of birth defects caused by the effects of alcohol on a unborn child (syndrome)

10. A drug that slows brain and body reactions is called a

12. A disease that could lead to liver failure and death

13. many schools have put in place this policy